Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: Claim 1 needs to end in a period. Appropriate correction is required.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Von Holdt, Sr. (US Patent 5,169,655).

Von Holdt, Sr. disclose a housing 49 having first and second end portions, a ball member 32 enclosed within the housing, said ball member and each of said first and second end portions having a hole therethrough, said ball member rotatable between open and closed positions, said hole in said ball member being perpendicular to said hole in each of said first and second end portions when in a closed position, said housing having openings created through opposing said walls and in alignment with the hole in the ball member when in the closed position. The housing 49 having an additional opening allowing shaft 28 to rotate the ball member 32.

Claim 3 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6395213 in view of Von Holdt, Sr.. While '213 does not claim a ball member used to feed the cavity, Von Holdt, Sr. discloses such a ball member to be conventional in order to feed a cavity.

Art Unit: 1722

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).
